Dear Harold;

Bored me Hell. That was a fascinating letter. The events of those bad old days are not that far away either. You ought to come down and talk to some of the people who now surround Arnold Miller at the UMW. Some of them are truly great men. Young ones and old ones and they ought to know about these experiences from your point of view. Write them. Like Tom Bethell, who used to write for Tom Gish's Mountain Eagle in Whitesberg Ky. and now is one of Miller's young brain trusters.

I'll hold on to your letter,-maybe, if you agree, I'll get a chance to show it to him. or should I wait for your book?

best regards

George Herman
